

HAPPY CHRISTMAS

Hello, lovely Maria,

Hereby a little news from so far away
It's been pretty long ago sins we've made contact to one other
But I can say with all my heart that you are still inside

I miss you

When I'm sad and lonely and everything goes wrong

I seem to hear you whisper "cheer up and carry on"

But when I see you're photo you seem to smile and say

"Don't cry, you know I love you, we'll meet again some day!"

So we love you for what you are, we like the way you look

We hope that you go very far, into what New Years day will book

We'll keep on writing and thinking of you too

But most of all we'll be missing you!!!

Well a little poem for a lovely girl so far
What more can I give you from where we are.
The days go fast away
There are not enough ours in a day
We are telling this many times
But what we want to now does your live still rimes

Our youngest joint the navy
Therefore we have to take care of the little child
She is lovely so that will be no problem
But with our work and our grandchild on our hand

There is little time left to do other things.
To give our though a slide distraction
It's nice to write a letter to someone you love
And it is perhaps even better to wish this person the very best
At least in the coming years ahead
We hope that it was a good year for your family
Give them our regards

So Merry Christmas and Eftecheezmaenos o Kaenootyos htonos to you all

And don't forget do not eat to much of your Vassilopitta.

Kisses from Lucas and Christa
